

WELCOME LETTER

Dear Colleagues,

It is my pleasure to welcome you on board to this fun loving professional network. I assure you there will be no regrets but advancement of personal life and professional career. I would like to share with you my vision for setting up this Network. The purpose is to help you to rediscover yourself in ways you can never imagine. The opportunities are many and great in this country Tunisia we only need to look and define what we need to succeed here. If we all apply ourselves to hard work and diligence in all we do individually or collectively as a team the sky is our limit and we would have left a trace that a set of women came through Tunis. We all have the capacity to change lives if we give our all.

I am here to help you in any way I can to open doors of opportunities to each member of this network as long as you show yourself worthy of trust and integrity.

We must all remember that pride generates resentment and strife we must constantly remind ourselves we are equals and no subordinates here in this network. However any organization that lacks structure cannot be functional, transparent, and accountable and result oriented. So we must all be focused all members of the network are to respect the structure of the Network.

We must therefore behave towards one another with the highest professionalism, respect and love, in that way we build each other up.

It is my utmost prayer that each and every one of you will achieve your dreams.

Good luck and God bless.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Nwakego Pam'.

Mrs Nwakego Ibrahim-Pam
Founder and chairperson
Expat Professional and Business Women's Network Tunis
EPBWN TUNIS

SEPTEMBER 2013